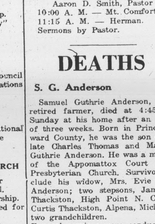
Any speaker, or writer, who pleases everybody, says nothing.

This may sound old-fashioned, but it still pays to buy at home.

WMU Annual Meeting In Burkeville



MRS. JOHN SYLVESTER

The annual meeting of the WMU of the Appomattox Association will be held in the Burkeville Baptist Church on Friday, Jan. 20, beginning at 10:00 a.m. The guest speaker will be Mrs. John Sylvester of the Home Mission Board. Mrs. Sylvester has been working with the Russian speaking people in Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Alfred Harwood, Jr., Superintendent of the Association, announces that the theme for the day will be "Laborers Together with God." Rev. W. M. Gravatt, pastor of Burkeville Baptist Church, will lead the devotional topic on "For they first gave themselves."

Mrs. W. M. Sublett, Jubilee Chairman will give goals for the year 1960-61 with the assistance of Mrs. Hunter Jones of Concord. Miss Joanne Stevens, music director of Liberty Church, will be in charge of music. Mrs. Kenneth Thornton, Mission Study Chairman, of Brookneal, will make the awards for those churches receiving 350 points on the Mission Study Achievement chart.

Awards for approved, advanced and honor societies will be given. Union Hill Church of near Brookneal is one of the three honor unions in the state of Virginia. Mrs. Harry Foster is WMU President and Rev. Omar Burnett is pastor.

At the conclusion of the program new officers will be installed and among them will be the new superintendent, Mrs. W. A. Odham, of Rice, Va., who succeds Mrs. Harwood, who has served for the past five years as WMU Superintendent of the Association.

SCHOOL OF MISSIONS CONTINUES AT THE MEMORIAL CHURCH

Last Sunday evening, beginning at 5:00 O'clock, Dr. J. A. Mathews, local physician was the featured speaker for the Adult Discussion Group of the Annual School of Missions. Next Sunday evening the Rev. R. M. Gay, pastor of the Concord Methodist Church will lead the discussion "Alcohol and Its Community Effects," with Mrs. C. T. Moses Jr., chairman of the Commission on Missions, in charge. Mrs. Rachel Lawson, secretary of Mission Studies for the Woman's Society of Christian Service, assistant chairman of the School of Missions.

Miss Faye Wood and Mrs. Mitchel Lewis are in charge of the M.Y.F. group. They will be discussing "In Step with Time" with emphasis upon the Church meeting the opportunities and responsibilities of today.

Mrs. J. S. Moore and Mrs. J. N. Jennings are counselors for the Juniors in their study of "The Bible Around the World." This group is an extension of the regular Junior Group meeting each Sunday evening during the year.

The Primary group, a new featur of the School of Missions this year, will continue their study of "Jesus Speaks to Us Through the Bible," Mrs. M. A. Hernoall and Miss Ruby Jones are in charge of the group.

Audio-Visual aids will be used each evening to further clinch the message of the discussions. There will be handwork for the Primary and Juniors and Special Projects for the Young People and Adult groups.

The Methodist Men will meet in their regular monthly Supper Fellowship at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan 18. A movie on "Mission to the Illiterates" will be shown.

Propaganda, in a democracy, is commendable except when it is dishonest and subversive.

People who talk fast and much often outrun their facts.

The trouble with most adults is that they think their school days have ended.

JOHN EVANS PROMOTED TO CADET SARGEANT

Williamsburg, Jan. 11 — John S. Evans of Appomattox has been promoted to the rank of Cadet Sergeant in the Reserve Officers Training Corps of the College of William and Mary.

This promotion was announced recently by Lt. Col. Thomas Dake, professor of military science and tatics.

as he handed us a ticket. Yessir. And so, I read the 3 inch by 8 inch cardboard ticket. It said: " Welcome to the City of Camden. This tag is your authority to park as long as you wish. We hope that your visit here will be enjoyable. and that you will take time to see our city." . . . and son on in nice print on both sides of the card.

The officer said . . ."forget about the parking meters, as long as you have this card on your windshield . . . we want visitors to like our town!"

We did have an interesting experience in Ocala, Florida. I just had to find a barber shop, and so we pulled in opposite a newsstand, and I asked my questions, only to find that the gentleman I was talking to was from Clover, Va. We then had to set down for a half-hour session, and I might sometime later "write up" Jim Hamilton. Bless him!
